

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

YOUTH ADVISORY COMMISSION

NUMBER OF MEMBERS: Twenty-five (25)

APPOINTED BY: City Council

COMPOSED OF: 25 students between the ages of 14 and 18.

Ex-officio members include two members of City staff: the coordinator and the advisor, to be appointed by City Council. The coordinator will serve as the staff liaison to the Youth Advisory Commission. (Ordinance No. 10,039, March 24, 2005). Coordinator: Gina Rivon. Advisor:

TERM OF OFFICE: One (1) year.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- a. The Youth Advisory Commission shall be selected by the YAC Coordinator, subject to the approval of the City Council. Members shall serve a one-year term, which shall commence on September 1. A person who has served as a member of the Youth Advisory Commission for three terms may not again be eligible for reappointment. In determining the number of terms a member has served, service for a part of a term will be counted as if the member had served the entire term.
- b. Each member must be enrolled in a public school or a private or parochial school, including a home school, within the boundaries of the Goose Creek Consolidated Independent School District, and must maintain good standing at the school in which such member is enrolled. A member who has graduated from the school in which he was enrolled at the time of his appointment may retain his office until the expiration of his term.

MEETINGS:

At least monthly from September to May. Meetings shall be held at the place and time and date stated on the notice of meeting.
